

the Wild's C-I-T CAMPER-IN-TRAINING

CIT or Camper-in-Training is our most rigorous training program for teens. This two-week program features advanced sessions emphasizing practical growth in the Christian life and training in servant leadership. In addition, the CITer will be involved in at least two one-to-one personal mentoring sessions with CIT instructors. The second week builds on the first week's instruction plus adds leadership roles in a cabin among other campers. This important program is designed for young people who are committed to Christ, are 16 years old or older, are entering at least the 11th grade, and who desire a stretching leadership challenge.

COST FOR CIT PROGRAM: $499

CIT participation is by invitation. Registration includes a detailed application that must be completed and returned to us by December 31, 2009. To begin the registration process, please contact:

Christian conduct: As a Christian organization, THE WILDS maintains high standards of conduct and separation. Separate swim times are scheduled for male and female campers. Campers who use tobacco, alcohol, or any form of illegal drugs will be dismissed. Any noncooperative or noncompliant campers will be subject to dismissal.

Ladies/girls note: Please bring knee-length skirts or dresses for the evening services (slits must not come above the knee). Any fashion worn must come at least to the top of the knee and cover the shoulders. Low necklines (front or back) are not acceptable camp attire. Loose-fitting pants, jeans, or knee-length fashions may be worn except when otherwise specified. Swimsuits should be one-piece and lined.

Men/boys note: Long pants and shirts with collars are required for evening services. Fashions to the knee may be worn at other times.

All campers need to be checked for lice prior to arrival at camp, and only those campers who are "nit-free" should be allowed to come.
